Rational Practice Problem
Math 130 Kovitz 2012

1. Simplify the following rational expression so that no fractions remain.

   Then factor the resultant expression as much as possible.

   Is $(3x - 1)$ one of the factors?

   $$\frac{18x^3 - 9x^2 + x}{x}$$

   Answer: yes.